

Supplementary Figure 1 Relative overexpression of the cell surface membrane receptors, EGFR and TfR, in various human cancer cell lines. A Immunofluorescence and Western blot data correlate well with receptor expression levels. B The graph demonstrates the quantitation of the endogenous levels of each receptor from the Western autoradiograph. C The table assigns values to the expression levels to aid in the choice of cancer cell lines for future in vivo studies.